SELLING SECURITYHOLDER

On May 11, 2009, Vector Group Ltd. entered into a purchase agreement with Frost Nevada Investments Trust, pursuant to which we issued $50.0 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes in reliance on an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act. For purposes of this prospectus, references to “selling securityholder” includes its transferees, pledgees, assignees, distributees, donees or successors or others who later hold any of the securityholders’ interests. Our registration of the 2,227,552 shares of our common stock held by the selling securityholder listed below, and the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the remaining $25.0 million aggregate principal amount of the Notes held by the selling securityholder listed below does not necessarily mean that the selling securityholder will sell all or any of such common stock.

The following table sets forth information as of December 24, 2014 with respect to the selling securityholder and the common stock beneficially owned by such selling securityholder that may be offered under this prospectus. The information is based on information that has been provided to us by or on behalf of the selling securityholder named in the table, and does not necessarily indicate beneficial ownership for any other purpose. The number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the remaining $25.0 million outstanding aggregate principal amount of the Notes is subject to adjustment under certain circumstances described in the Notes. Accordingly, the number of shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes and the number of shares beneficially owned and offered by the selling securityholder pursuant to this prospectus may increase or decrease from that set forth in the table below. We have assumed for purposes of the table below that the selling securityholder will sell all of the 2,227,552 shares of our common stock currently held by the selling securityholder and all of the common stock issuable upon conversion of the remaining $25.0 million aggregate principal amount outstanding of the Notes pursuant to this prospectus, and that any other shares of our common stock beneficially owned by the selling securityholder will continue to be beneficially owned.

Information regarding the selling securityholder may change over time. In particular, the selling securityholder identified below may have sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of all or a portion of any such securities since the date on which they provided us information regarding their holdings in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

For the purposes of the following table, the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned has been determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act, and such information is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose. Under Rule 13d-3, beneficial ownership includes any shares as to which a selling securityholder has sole or shared voting power or investment power and also any shares which the selling securityholder has the right to acquire within 60 days of the date of this prospectus through the exercise of any stock option, warrant or other rights. The percent of beneficial ownership for the selling securityholder in the table below is based on 114,500,921 shares of our common stock outstanding as of December 24, 2014.

We recorded rent expense associated with the lease of $253,535 for the year ended December 31, 2013 and $285,230 for the nine months ended September 30, 2014.

Unless otherwise indicated herein, the selling securityholder does not, and within the past three years has not had, any position, office or other material relationship with us or any of our predecessors or affiliates.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling securityholder, including their pledgees, donees, transferees, distributees, beneficiaries or other successors in interest, may from time to time offer some or all of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. To the extent required, this prospectus may be amended and supplemented from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution.

The selling securityholder will not pay any of the costs, expenses and fees in connection with the registration and sale of the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus, but they will pay any and all underwriting discounts and, selling commissions, if any, attributable to sales of the shares. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of our common stock covered hereby.

The common stock offered by this prospectus may be sold from time to time to purchasers:

- directly by the selling securityholder; or
- through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling securityholder or the purchasers of the common stock offered by this prospectus.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling securityholder from the sale of the common stock offered by this prospectus will be the purchase price paid for such shares, less discounts and commissions, if any. The selling securityholder reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents from time to time, reject, in whole or in part any proposed purchase of common stock to be made directly or through agents.

The selling securityholder and any such broker-dealers or agents who participate in the distribution of the common stock offered by this prospectus may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act. As a result, any profits on the sale of such shares by the selling securityholder and any discounts, commissions or concessions received by any such broker-dealers or agents might be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. If the selling securityholder is deemed to be an underwriter, the selling securityholder may be subject to certain statutory liabilities, including, but not limited to, those under Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act. If the selling securityholder is deemed to be an underwriter, the selling securityholder will also be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act.

The common stock covered by this prospectus may be sold in one or more transactions at:

- fixed prices;
- prevailing market prices at the time of sale or prices related to prevailing market prices at the time of sale;
- varying prices determined at the time of sale; or
- negotiated prices.

These sales may be effected in transactions:

- on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of the sale, including the NYSE;
- in the over-the-counter market;

- in transactions otherwise than on such exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market; or
- through the writing of options.

These transactions may include block transactions or crosses. Crosses are transactions in which the same broker acts as an agent on both sides of the trade.

In connection with sales of the common stock offered by this prospectus or otherwise, the selling securityholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers. These broker-dealers may in turn engage in short sales of the common stock in the course of hedging their positions. The selling securityholder may also sell the common stock short and deliver shares of the common stock to close out short positions, or loan or pledge common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell the common stock.

To our knowledge, there are currently no plans, arrangements or understandings between the selling securityholder and any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of the common stock offered hereby. The selling securityholder might not sell any or all of the common stock offered by it using this prospectus. The selling securityholder might instead transfer, devise or gift any such shares by other means not described in this prospectus, including pursuant to one or more transactions exempt from registration under the Securities Act, if available. In addition, any such shares covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A of the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 or Rule 144A rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

To the extent necessary, we may amend or supplement this prospectus from time to time to describe a specific plan of distribution. We will file a supplement to this prospectus, if required, upon being notified by the selling securityholder that any material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares of the common stock through a block trade, offering or a purchase by a broker or dealer. The applicable prospectus supplement will set forth the specific terms of the offering of common stock, including:

- the number of shares of common stock offered;
- the price of such share of common stock;
- the proceeds to the selling securityholder from the sale of such common stock;
- the names of the underwriters or agents, if any;
- any underwriting discounts, agency fees or other compensation to underwriters or agents; and
- any discounts or concession allowed to paid to dealers.

The selling securityholder and any other person participating in a distribution of the common stock offered by this prospectus will be subject to the Exchange Act. The Exchange Act rules include, without limitation, Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the common stock by the selling securityholder and any other such person. In addition, Regulation M of the Exchange Act may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the common stock being distributed for a period of time before the commencement of such distribution. This may affect the marketability of the common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the common stock.

We may suspend the use of this prospectus for any period and at any time, including, without limitation, in the event of pending corporate developments, public filings with the SEC, and similar events.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the common stock offered hereby will be passed upon for us by our general counsel, Marc N. Bell.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the DGCL, provides, in relevant part, that a corporation may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful. Under Section 145(b) of the DGCL, such eligibility for indemnification may be further subject to the adjudication of the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought.

Section 102(b)(7) of the DGCL provides that a corporation may in its certificate of incorporation eliminate or limit the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director except for liability: (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) under Section 174 of the DGCL (pertaining to certain prohibited acts including unlawful payment of dividends or unlawful purchase or redemption of the corporation's capital stock); or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Our certificate of incorporation eliminates such personal liability of our directors under such terms.

We also maintain liability insurance for the benefit of our directors and officers.

Item 16. Exhibits

A list of exhibits included as part of this registration statement is set forth in the Exhibit Index and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 17. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of this registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions described in Item 15 above, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

OPINION OF MARC N. BELL, GENERAL COUNSEL

December 24, 2014

Vector Group Ltd.
4400 Biscayne Boulevard
Miami, Florida 33137

Re: Registration of Securities of Vector Group Ltd.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am the General Counsel of Vector Group, Ltd., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”). I refer to the Registration Statement on Form S-3 of the Company filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Registration Statement”) on the date hereof in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”) of the offer and sale by the Selling Securityholder of up to (i) 2,227,552 shares of common stock, par value $0.10 per share (“Common Stock”), of the Company (the “Conversion Shares”) issuable upon the conversion of the Company’s 6.75% Variable Interest Senior Convertible Notes due 2015 (the “Notes”) and (ii) 2,227,552 additional shares of Common Stock held by the Selling Securityholder (the “Additional Shares” and together with the Conversion Shares, the “Shares”). This opinion is being furnished in connection with the requirements of Item 601(b)(5) of Regulation S-K under the Act, and no opinion is expressed herein as to any matter pertaining to the contents of the Registration Statement or the Prospectus contained therein, other than as expressly stated herein with respect to the issuance and sale of the Shares.

In rendering the opinion below, I have examined originals or copies of those corporate and other records and documents I considered appropriate. I assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to me as originals and the conformity with originals of all documents submitted to me as copies. As to various questions of fact material to such opinion, I have, when relevant facts were not independently established, relied upon certificates by officers of the Company and other appropriate persons.

Based on this examination, I am of the opinion that:

1. The Conversion Shares have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company and, when issued upon conversion of the Notes in accordance with the terms of the Note, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.
2. The Additional Shares have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company and validly issued and are fully paid and non-assessable.

The law governed by this opinion letter is limited to the present Delaware General Corporation Act. I express no opinion herein as to any other laws, statutes, regulations or ordinances of any other jurisdiction.

I hereby consent to the use of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the reference to me under the heading “Legal Matters” in the Prospectus constituting part of the Registration Statement. In giving such consent, I do not thereby admit that I am in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Act or the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Marc N. Bell
