CUSIP NOS. 649080-50-5

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT:

This Amendment No. 19 relates to the common shares, par value $.01 per share (the “Common Shares”), of New Valley Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“New Valley”). This Amendment amends and restates in its entirety the Schedules 13D filed jointly by certain of the Reporting Persons (as defined below) with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 11, 1988, as previously amended by Amendments No. 1-18 thereto, and on June 26, 1995, as previously amended by Amendment No. 1 thereto (as amended, this “Schedule 13D”).

Item 1. SECURITY AND ISSUER

This Schedule 13D relates to the Common Shares of New Valley, which has its principal executive offices at 100 S.E. Second Street, 32nd Floor, Miami, Florida 33131, (305) 579-8000.

Item 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND

(a) This Schedule 13D is being filed by Vector Group Ltd. (formerly known as Brooke Group Ltd.), a Delaware corporation (“VGR”), VGR Holding Inc. (formerly known as BGLS Inc.), a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of VGR (“VGR Holding”), and Bennett S. LeBow, the beneficial owner of approximately 33.6% of the common stock of VGR (individually, a “Reporting Person” and, collectively, the “Reporting Persons”) who collectively may be deemed to be a group beneficially owning approximately 57.7% of the outstanding Common Shares within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”). The filing of this Schedule 13D shall not be construed as an admission that any Reporting Person is, for purposes of Section 13(d) or 13(g) of the Act, the beneficial owner of any securities covered by this statement except for the securities stated herein to be beneficially owned by such Reporting Person or that the Reporting Persons are acting as a group within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Act.

(b),(c) VGR is a publicly held corporation with shares of its common stock listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol “VGR”. VGR Holding is a holding company for a number of businesses and is principally engaged, through its subsidiaries, in the manufacture and sale of cigarettes in the United States, and holds a direct equity interest in New Valley. Mr. LeBow is the Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of VGR, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of VGR Holding, and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of New Valley and holds various positions with VGR’s other subsidiary companies. A list of the directors and executive officers of each of VGR and VGR Holding is attached hereto as Exhibit A. The principal business and principal office address of each of VGR and VGR Holding and, except as otherwise indicated, their respective directors and executive officers and the business address of Mr. LeBow is 100 S.E. Second Street, Miami, Florida 33131.

(d),(e) None of the Reporting Persons, and to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, none of the persons named in Exhibit A hereto, during the last five years, (1) has been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors), or (2) was a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceeding was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) Mr. LeBow is a citizen of the United States of America, and, to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, each of the persons referred to in Exhibit A hereto is a citizen of the United States.

Item 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATION

See Item 4 herein.

SCHEDULE 13D

CUSIP NOS. 649080-50-4

Item 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

On September 27, 2005, VGR submitted a letter to the Board of Directors of New Valley setting forth VGR's proposal to acquire all of the outstanding Common Shares not currently beneficially owned by the Reporting Persons in exchange for 0.461 shares of VGR common stock, subject to customary conditions. A copy of VGR's proposal is attached hereto as Exhibit C and the press release announcing the proposal is attached hereto as Exhibit D, each of which is incorporated herein by reference. The description herein of the proposal and the matters contemplated thereby is qualified in its entirety by reference to such letter and press release.

If the Reporting Persons collectively hold at least 90% of the outstanding Common Shares following completion of the exchange offer, in compliance with Delaware law, they plan to effect a "short-form" merger of New Valley with a VGR subsidiary. If the proposed transaction is completed, New Valley will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of VGR.

Except as set forth in this Item 4, none of the Reporting Persons has any present plans or proposals which relate to or would result in any of the matters set forth in paragraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D (although the right to develop such plans or proposals is reserved).

Item 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

- (a) As of the date hereof, the Reporting Persons may be deemed to be acting as a group, within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Act, beneficially owning in the aggregate 12,849,118 Common Shares, which constituted approximately 57.7% of the 22,260,607 Common Shares outstanding as of the date hereof (based on 23,332,036 Common Shares outstanding as reported in New Valley's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005, filed August 9, 2005, less 1,071,429 restricted Common Shares no longer outstanding after being renounced and waived by Howard M. Lorber, as reflected in the Schedule 13D amendment filed by Mr. Lorber on September 28, 2005).

Howard M. Lorber, a person named in Exhibit A hereto, beneficially owns 963,941 Common Shares, or approximately 4.3% of the outstanding Common Shares. This includes 778,608 Common Shares held directly by Mr. Lorber, 120,000 Common Shares held by Lorber Alpha II Partnership, a Nevada limited partnership, and 65,333 Common Shares subject to currently exercisable employee stock options. Lorber Alpha II, Inc., a Nevada corporation, is the general partner of Lorber Alpha II Partnership. Mr. Lorber is the director, officer and principal stockholder of Lorber Alpha II, Inc. Henry C. Beinstein, a person named in Exhibit A hereto, beneficially owns 41,499 Common Shares, or approximately one-tenth of 1% of the outstanding Common Shares. This includes 833 Common Shares beneficially owned by Mr. Beinstein's spouse, as to which he disclaims beneficial ownership, and 30,000 Common Shares issuable upon exercise of currently exercisable options.

Except as described in this subparagraph (a), neither any of the Reporting Persons nor, to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any of the persons referred to in Exhibit A hereto, beneficially owns any Common Shares.

- (b) VGR Holding exercises sole voting power and sole dispositive power over 12,849,118 Common Shares (the "VGR Holding Shares"). Under the definition of "beneficial ownership" in Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Act ("Rule 13d-3"), each of the other Reporting Persons may be deemed to beneficially own the VGR Holding Shares since Mr. LeBow beneficially owns a controlling interest in VGR, which in turn owns 100% of the capital stock of VGR Holding. The disclosure of this information shall not be construed as an admission that any of the Reporting Persons other than VGR Holding is the beneficial owner of the VGR Holding Shares under Rule 13d-3, or for any other purpose, and such beneficial ownership is expressly disclaimed. Under such definition of “beneficial ownership”, it is also possible that members of the Board of Directors of VGR Holding, in their capacities as such, might be deemed to be beneficial owners of the VGR Holding Shares, and share the voting and dispositive powers with regard to such shares. The disclosure of this information shall not be construed as an admission that the directors of VGR Holding are beneficial owners of the VGR Holding Shares, either for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Act or for any other purpose, and such beneficial ownership is expressly disclaimed.

Howard M. Lorber, a person named in Exhibit A hereto, exercises sole voting power and sole dispositive power over (i) 778,608 Common Shares held directly by Mr. Lorber, (ii) 120,000 Common Shares held by Lorber Alpha II Partnership, and (iii) 65,333 Common Shares acquirable by Mr. Lorber upon exercise of currently exercisable options. Henry C. Beinstein, a person named in Exhibit A hereto, may be deemed to have sole voting power and sole dispositive power over the 41,499 Common Shares beneficially owned by him, including 30,000 Common Shares issuable upon exercise of currently exercisable options.

- (c) On September 23, 2005, New Valley Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of VGR Holding (“NV Holdings”), which, at the time, owned 12,763,516 Common Shares, merged into VGR Holding, with VGR Holding being the surviving company. Except as described in this paragraph (c), neither the Reporting Persons nor, to the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, any of the persons named in Exhibit A hereto, has effected any transactions in the Common Shares during the past 60 days.
- (d) See Item 6 herein.
- (e) Not applicable.

Item 6. CONTRACT, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

On June 14, 2004, 1,260,349 warrants to purchase Common Shares (“Warrants”) beneficially owned by VGR Holding and 1,809,314 Warrants beneficially owned by NV Holdings expired without being exercised.

In November 2004, VGR Holding retired the remaining $63 million of its 10% Senior Secured Notes due March 31, 2006 (the “Notes”). The Notes had been secured by a pledge by VGR Holding and NV Holdings of each such entity’s now owned or hereafter acquired equity securities in New Valley, together with all dividends and distributions thereon and proceeds thereof. The pledge was terminated upon the final retirement of the Notes.

On September 27, 2005, Howard M. Lorber renounced and waived his rights to 1,071,429 restricted Common Shares which had been granted to him by New Valley on January 10, 2005 pursuant to New Valley’s 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan.

[VECTOR GROUP LTD. LETTERHEAD]

September 27, 2005

The Board of Directors
New Valley Corporation
100 S.E. Second Street
Miami, Florida 33131

Gentlemen:

It has become clear to us that the best interests of our respective stockholders will be served by Vector's acquisition of the outstanding shares of New Valley that we do not already own. We believe that a full combination of our businesses will yield significant efficiencies and, by fully integrating New Valley into the Vector family of operations, New Valley stockholders will be able to share in a greater scope of opportunities than are available to them as New Valley stockholders. New Valley shareholders will become owners of a company with solid cash flow and an attractive dividend yield. In addition, the transaction will provide New Valley stockholders with an immediate premium for their shares and a currency that has substantially greater liquidity than New Valley has been able to provide.

As evidenced by Vector's long history with New Valley, we are not interested in selling our shares in New Valley. Moreover, if the two companies are combined, we expect important cost savings will be realized and that the transaction would be immediately accretive to Vector's cash earnings.

Consequently, our Board of Directors has authorized us to make an exchange offer pursuant to which the stockholders of New Valley (other than VGR Holding Inc.) will be offered 0.461 shares of common stock of Vector for each outstanding share of New Valley common stock they own in a transaction designed to be tax-free. Based on the $19.54 closing price of Vector's shares on September 26, 2005, our offer provides a value of approximately $9.00 per share of New Valley common stock and a 21% premium to the closing price of New Valley common stock on that date.

Vector's offer is being made directly to New Valley's stockholders. We believe that it will be favorably received by them due to the substantial premium to New Valley's market price, the attractiveness of Vector stock and the opportunity for greater liquidity. New Valley stockholders, through their ownership of Vector common stock, will continue to participate in New Valley's business.

SCHEDULE 13D

Our offer will be conditioned on the tender of a sufficient number of shares of New Valley common stock such that, after the offer is completed, we will own at least 90% of the outstanding shares of New Valley common stock and other customary conditions. Assuming that the conditions to the offer are satisfied and that the offer is completed, we will then effect a "short form" merger of New Valley with a subsidiary of Vector as soon as practicable thereafter. In this merger, the remaining New Valley public stockholders will receive the same consideration as in the exchange offer, except for those stockholders who choose to exercise their appraisal rights.

We intend to file our offering materials with the Securities and Exchange Commission and commence our exchange offer on or about October 12, 2005. Vector is not seeking, and as the offer is being made directly to New Valley's stockholders, Delaware law does not require approval of the offer from New Valley's Board of Directors. We, however, encourage you to consult with your outside counsel as to the obligations of New Valley's Board of Directors under the U.S. tender offer rules to advise the stockholders of your recommendation with respect to our offer. Also, enclosed is a copy of the press release that we are issuing in connection with the offer.

Sincerely,

/s/ Bennett S. LeBow
